“My Last Request”

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what's right,
To give the most I could, not do less.
Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
Please don't fuss, argue, or talk in harsh tones,
the Heavenly Father hears you and will ring your phone.
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm still praising God I've made it home,
Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done.
Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me don't draw me as a Saint,
I've done some good, I've done some wrong so use all your paint.
The bright and light tones make some colorful marks,
Just paint me in your heart.
Remember all the good and don't concentrate on the bad,
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something, then I have one last request.
Forgive me and each other for whatever wrong has been done.
Open up the door and let the Love of God
Be shared abroad in your hearts, this is the only way we can bond.
Turn from your wicked ways, for there are not many days.
He shall come like a thief in the night, so be sure you're right.
This Is My Last Request!
